so the nj team looked at many things, and they found something: a "q" problem heat exacerbates any disabilities you might have 3 when there was less control due to the bull running with the herd (year 2 showed neither loss nor gain)